

DELTA FERRY AUTHORITY AFTER-HOURS SERVICE REGULATIONS

1. After-hours ferry service is defined as any morning, evening or off-day service not included in the regular schedule of the ferry.
2. After-hours ferry service should be scheduled in advance whenever possible and the executed Authorization Form or facsimile posted on the ferry 24 hours in advance.
3. After-hours ferry service requires availability of captain/crew and approval of the two ferry directors. Unauthorized after-hours service is prohibited. Contact:

4. Special after-hours ferry service can be accommodated with approval of the two directors and availability of the ferry captain/crew.
5. After-hours ferry service payments should be made payable to the Delta Ferry Authority and submitted to: ZKS Real Estate, Attention Carlos Via, 1660 Olympic Boulevard, Suite 350, Walnut Creek, CA 94596. Payment should be made in advance. Under no circumstances are payments to be made to the ferry captain or other employees of the Delta Ferry Authority. Frequent ferry users may establish an account. Advance payments are refundable if after-hours service is canceled within 24 hours of scheduled service.
6. After-hours usage will be billed in one-hour increments. Off-day usage will be billed in one-hour increments with a four-hour minimum. Special after-hours service will be billed in accordance with agreed upon increments.
7. The after-hours ferry service billing rate is $100 per hour for Bradford Island and Webb Tract residents/landowners and $150 per hour for non-residents/non-landowners, but may be reviewed and adjusted from time to time.
8. After-hours service is not proprietary. The requesting party responsible for payment of the after-hours rate will be given the highest priority for service, but other individuals may still utilize ferry service during the same period if space is available.
9. A completed authorization form should accompany all after-hours service requests.
